Duration
ONE DAY

Overview & Objectives

Food Fraud and Food Defence is a serious issue, and has been highlighted as part of the additional requirements of FSSC 22000.

There is an increased focus on ensuring food supply and food safety are resilient to fraud and adulteration, by certification bodies such as BRC, FSSC and food retailers. It is inevitable that food businesses will need to implement some form of TACCP & VACCP systems. The course will focus on the differences and help provide delegates with tools to assess and implement a system.

Course Objectives

The course will equip the delegates with:

- An understanding of food fraud and food defence
- Practical insights to assist with detection and prevention of fraud and food defence

Outline

- Understanding the terms and differences between VACCP, TACCP & HACCP
- Requirements of FSSC 22000
- Tools to conduct a VACCP and TACCP Study
- Practical Application

A certificate of attendance and virtual badge will be issued once the course has been successfully completed.
